PROTECTIVE ORDER

13 Cr. 414 (SHS)

Upon the application of the United States of America and the defendant having requested discovery, the Court hereby finds and orders as follows:

WHEREAS, the Government intends to disclose to the defendant documents, objects, and information pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16, 18 U.S.C. § 3500, and/or the Government’s general obligation to produce exculpatory and impeachment material in criminal cases, all of which will be referred to herein as “Disclosure Material”; and

WHEREAS, the entry of a protective order in this case will permit the Government expeditiously to produce Disclosure Material without further litigation or the need for substantial redactions, and will afford the defense prompt access to such materials, in substantially unredacted form, which will facilitate the preparation of the defense;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. There is good cause for entry of a protective order and the provisions set forth herein.
2. Disclosure Material shall not be disclosed by the defendant or defense counsel, including any successor counsel (collectively, “the defense”), other than as set forth herein, and shall be used by the defense solely for purposes of defending this action.
3. Disclosure Material may be disclosed by the defense to:
 - a. The defendant;

b. The following persons (hereinafter, “Designated Persons”): (i) investigative, paralegal, secretarial, clerical, and other personnel employed or retained by defense counsel; (ii) independent expert witnesses, investigators, or advisors retained by defense counsel in connection with this action; and (iii) such other persons as hereafter may be authorized by the Court.

4. All Designated Persons to whom Disclosure Material is disclosed shall be subject to the terms of this Order. To the extent Disclosure Material is disclosed to any Designated Persons, the defense shall first provide each Designated Person with a copy of this Order and instruct such Designated Person(s) that they are bound by the terms of this Order. The defense shall make reasonable efforts to maintain a record of what Disclosure Material has been disclosed to Designated Persons pursuant to this Order.

5. The defense may show Disclosure Material to potential witnesses (“Potential Witnesses”) during the course and for the purpose of investigation, but shall not disseminate Disclosure Material to Potential Witnesses or permit Potential Witnesses to make or retain copies of Disclosure Material. To the extent Disclosure Material is disclosed to Potential Witnesses, The defense shall first instruct each Potential Witness as to the terms of this Order and instruct such Potential Witness(es) that they are bound by the terms of this Order. The defense shall make reasonable efforts to maintain a record of what Disclosure Material has been disclosed to Potential Witnesses pursuant to this Order.

6. The defense shall not post any Disclosure Material on any Internet site or network site to which persons other than the parties hereto have access, and shall not disclose any Disclosure Material to the media or any third party, except as set forth herein.

7. The Government may authorize, in writing, disclosure of Disclosure Material beyond that otherwise permitted by this Order without further Order of this Court.

8. This Order does not prevent the disclosure of any Disclosure Material in any judicial proceeding in this action, or to any judge or magistrate judge, for purposes of this action. All public filings shall separately comply with the privacy protection provisions of Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 49.1.

9. Except for Disclosure Material that has been made part of the record of this case, the defense shall return to the Government, or securely destroy or delete, all Disclosure Material within thirty (30) days of the expiration of the period for direct appeal from any verdict in the above-captioned case; the period of direct appeal from any order dismissing any of the charges in the above-captioned case; or the granting of any motion made on behalf of the Government dismissing any charges in the above-captioned case, whichever date is later.
